

Sean Murray called the meeting to order at 10:48 pm, he started with the obligation and introduced Patrick Murphy the National Chief and VIP.

Minutes

Matt Slimowicz presented the minutes from the May CoC. Ga-Hon-Ga motioned to pass the minutes, Haudenosaunee seconded. Motion passed, minutes approved.

Awards

Sean reminded the Lodge Chiefs about the various awards that are going to be presented on Sunday. The awards are Most Outstanding Lodge, Most Cheerful Arrowman and Most Outstanding Arrowman. The selection will be done by the section staff and lodge advisers.

CVC Reports

The Service Lodge, Half Moon, stated that everything was going great and that a few minor things didn't go as planned.

Friday Special Events, Tahgajute Lodge, stated that everything for Friday night went well and the campwide game is ok.

Haudenosaunee Lodge, CVC of Friday Shows, stated that the opening show was impressive and they thought it went over well.

Josh Greenman, the Section Vice Chief, reminded the Lodge Chiefs about the ID's and barcode stickers. He also reminded everyone that it is important to follow the schedule.

Loon Lodge in charge of American Indian Affairs said everything is going OK, and a bone carving session is planned for recreation time

Saturday Special Events stated that the auctions and competitions are going to be carried out. The camping promotions competition needs to be improved for next year.

Recreation stated that they needed participants for the events.

The CVC for Saturday Shows, Mike Matt, stated that the show is going good and they are planning on some practice.

Publications stated that they are planning the newsletters to include schedules, and everything participants need are in the newsletter.

Sean thanked the CVC's for their hard work.

Schedule review

Sean stated that there was no participant guide, so that people have to read the newsletter, rather than just throw it away.

Misc. Reminders

The Service lodge went over some issues that arose and other reminders to ensure that everyone has a fun and safe conclave.

Flag duties are as follows:

Saturday morning – Ga-Hon-Ga Lodge

Saturday dinner- Onteroraus Lodge

Sunday – Half Moon Lodge

All information is in the newsletter. Above all have fun.

Section Advisers Minute

Bob commented that everyone who had a job Friday evening did a great job. He is also looking forward to a great conclave. He emphasized the importance of having a plan “B” by each CVC.

A motion was made Half Moon with a second by Loon. Motion passed. The meeting closed at 11:19 pm.

<Recorded and submitted by Matt Slimowicz>